It Provides for the Construction, Control and Operation of Future Subways and Indeterminate Franchises-New Bill for Municipal Self-Government.

ALBANY, Feb. 17.-Assemblyman Beverley R. Robinson of New York to-night introduced a bill which is intended to solve the problem of the construction, control and operation of future subways in New York city. He introduced the bill at the request of the allied real estate interests. It provides for indeterminate franchises, with a minimum period of twenty-five years, during which time the city shall not have the right to take over the franchise and property of the railroad corporation, and to extend from twenty to thirty-five years the period for which a franchise for can be given. The indeterminate franchise provision permits the sale of a franchise to maintain and operate a subway for a fixed period of not more than twenty-five years, and thereafter until the city at its option shall repay to the company the cost of construction and purchase the property owned and used by the company in connection with the subway. The terms of such purchase by the city must provide that no allowance shall be made to the company as payment for its franchise.

the equipment, maintenance and operation of a subway constructed at city expense

When such a franchise is offered for sale bids may be asked for the construction and operation of the road, either in cash or in annual fixed payments, or in payment to the city of a proportion of the net income annually after deducting from the gross income operating expenses and interest on the cost of construction and equipment at a rate fixed in the bid. Bids may be called for on any or all of these bases at the same time, and the Public Service Commission is at liberty to accept any one of the bids which it believes to be for the best interests of the city. The conditions of the sale may provide Senator Thomas F. Grady has a bill which he thinks will reach automobile speed violators. It provides that where a car is exceeding the speed limit and hits a person, if death results the owner of the car shall be guilty of manslaughter in the second degree. Where the injuries are not fatal the owner must be imprisoned. the second degree. Where the injuries are not fatal the owner must be imprisoned for from one to two years, and in addition must be fined an amount between $1,000 and $2,000. If there is an attempt to escape after the accident the owner in addition shall be imprisoned for not less than thirty days and be fined not less than $100.

Another bill of Senator Grady prohibits discrimination in freight rates on full carloads travelling within the State and pro-oads travelling within the State and provides that the rate for lots less than a carload shall not be less than 10 per cent. of the rate for a full carload. A railroad shall not charge less than 10 per cent. than is charged for a full carload that is hauled within the

the State or hauled out of the State.

Another bill of Senator Grady's proposes an amendment to the Constitution guaranteeing to cities, and incorporated villages the right of municipal self-govern-villages the right of municipal self-government and providing that none but general laws affecting them shall be enacted.

To prevent deception as to the cause of death Senator Sohmer put in a bill prohibiting the embalming of bodies in New York city before the Coroner has been called in cases where the cause of death is supplicious.

Senator Thompson introduced a bill sized at retent medicines in prohibiting aimed at patent medicines in prohibiting practising physicians from prescribing such medicines.

A bill introduced by Senator Travis provides that public service corporations must file the designation of two persons on whom process in actions may be served.

Assemblyman Palmer introduced a bill amending the Constitution so as to provide that whenever a vacancy occurs on the Supreme Court bench the appointee shall be of the same political faith as the former occupant of the bench.

Assemblyman Cuvillier to-night intro-buced a bill providing that a tax of $50 be duced a bill providing that a tax of $50 be imposed upon each thousand shares of bank stock, the money derived from the tax to be paid into the State Treasury and to be held as a reserve to reimburse depositors in the event of a bank failing.

Another bill introduced by Mr. Cuvillier provides that all cars operated in New York city shall be equipped with automatic air brakes.

Mr. Cuvillier also introduced a resolu-tion calling upon the New York City Board of Estimate to award contracts immediately for the building of the East Side subway so as to give employment to the 150,000 men out of work in New York City at the present time. The resolution went over Assemblyman Sheridan of The Bronx introduced a resolution providing for a legislative committee to investigate what the New York Amerian has done with the money that was subscribed to build a monument in honor of the Maine victims. The resolution also calls for a re-port as to how much money was raised for the proposed monument.

A bill introduced by Assemblyman Stern provides that eight and one-half hours with a half hour for lunch, shall be a day's ork for employees of the New York City

RAPID TRANSIT AMENDMENTS To Facilitate Subway Building Proposed

by Allled Real Estate Interests. Amendments to the rapid transit act, submitted by its law sommittee to facilitate the building of more subways, were approved yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the committee of organization of the Allied Real Estate Interests at 203 Broad-The amended bill was sent to Albany last night.

The Public Service Commission is allowed by these amendments to ask for alternative bids for the operation of a subway built by the city, the term of such lease to be limited to thirty-five years, with twenty years re-newal, and for the construction and operation of a subway with a twenty-five year franchise, the city to have the right to re-voke the franchise at any time thereafter on payment of cost of construction.

William R. Willcox, chairman of the Public Service Commission, was at the meeting and made a speech about the need of subways, and the debt limit and other things he has mentioned before.

IMPOSSIBLE TRANSIT ORDERS. Interborough Explains Why It Can't Fulfil Some Demands of P. S. Commission.

That the Interborough is not taking kindly to some of the orders of the Public Service Commission was shown yesterday in a hearing which Commissioner Eustis held on several orders of the commission. In one case the company, through its counsel, Alfred A. Gardner, said that it had been forced to apply for a rehearing after the commission's order had been made final because it was a physical impossibility to comply with the order and that unless it was reconsidered the company would be in constant danger of $1,000 pen-alties. This was an order the commission made to have twenty-five trains pass a given point on the Third avenue elevated every thirty minutes in the rush hours. This would be a train almost every minute, and General Manager Frank Hedley said that it represented the absolute maximum of the represented the absolute maximum of the road without allowing anything for safety. To comply with such an order so that the road would not be in danger of a fine would mean, he asserted, that the machinery of the road would have to be kept absolutely flawless at all times. If a woman fainted on a station platform, he said, the road would be in danger of a fine.

Commissioner Eustis said that the checkers' reports showed that twenty-four trains were being run on an average now and that if this should be kept up without an order the commission would be satisfied. The commission had ordered an increase in the local trains on the Ninth avenue line.

in the local trains on the Ninth avenue line Mr. Hedley said that inasmuch as the com-mission's experts had represented this ser-vice as the best of all the lines in the city he would like to know what the commis-sion's idea of a good service was.

"Well, my idea is to have a few vacant seats in the cars all the time," said Com-missioner Eustis. Mr. Hedley said that this was not done anywhere in the country. and that in order to be sure of such a thing trains would run half empty at times.

"Well, it's done in many places where there is competition," said Commissioner Eustis, "and it used to be done here when there was competition."

It will be for the full commission to decide whether to take back any of its orders.

TO MEET THE HEPBURN LAW. Louisville and Nashville Rid of Its Coal Properties.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 17 .- The Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company to-day made declaration that under the provisions of the Hepburn act against transportation of coal in which the carrier has an interest it has disposed of its holdings in the Louis-ville Property Company to individual Lousi-ville and Nashville stockholders. The railville and Nashville stockholders. The railroad, as the Property Company, bought thousands of acres of coal lands in southeastern Kentucky and has built spur tracks to them. The lands were leased to coal companies. While the Property Company is not now controlled by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, the interests are identical and the change is merely made to meet the demands of the Hepburn act.
